About West Drayton - West Drayton is a district of the London Borough of Hillingdon to the north of London Heathrow Airport and near Junction 4 of the M4 giving access to the M25. West Drayton benefits from a bus station and a mainline station to Paddington and will be part of the Crossrail project due for completion in 2019 linking the town to Canary Wharf. The journey time to Canary Wharf will be just 37 minutes. Other London stations will include Bond Street, Tottenham Court Road, Farringdon and Liverpool Street. The Grand Union also canal passes through the town and Stockley Business Park with its Championship Golf course, set in 240 acres of rolling countryside, border West Drayton to the east.

The town has number of large convenience stores, fast food outlets and restaurants and there are several public houses including The Railway, The De Burgh Arms, The Six Bells and The George & Dragon. West Drayton also incorporates a conservation area, The Green, where you can find number of listed buildings including Drayton Hall, Southlands Art centre and The Gatehouse, a Tudor Grade II listed building built circa 1550.

Founded in 2004, Stockley Academy is a coeducational secondary school in the area and there are a number of Primary schools including St Catherine's faith school, Cherry Lane Primary and West Drayton Primary. There are also a number of bus routes and the 222 runs regularly through the town connecting West Drayton to Sipson, Uxbridge, Heathrow Airport, the Bath Road and Hounslow. Historically, in 939 the area was known as Draegtun, meaning 'farmstead at or near a portage or slope used for dragging down loads', or 'farmstead where drays or sledges are used'. It is recorded as Draitone in the 1086 Domesday Book, and as Westdrayton in 1465.
